

Apple Inc., founded in 1976, is a globally renowned technology company based in Cupertino, California. Famous for innovating and manufacturing consumer electronics and software products, Apple's most iconic products include the iPhone, iPad, Mac computers, Apple Watch, and services like the App Store, Apple Music, and iCloud. Known for its high-quality design, advanced technology, and robust security, Apple consistently plays a pivotal role in shaping the technology industry.